World Radio Day Committee

{ Press release
Communiqué de presse }

Paris, le 27 janvier 2014

After Madrid 2013, Paris capital of World Radio Day 2014!

To celebrate this day the international World Radio Day Committee (WRD), which includes the thirteen main audiovisual and telecommunication organizations, endorsed three actions:

www.wrd13.com : Radio stations around the world are invited to promote the official interactive platform of the international WRD Committee by proposing to their listeners to deposit audio messages on it, in any language, which they will be able to download for broadcasting all day long on February 13.

A prestigious concert free of rights offered by Radio France to every radio - community, confessional, private or public – which will be able to broadcast it for free on the day of February 13 (subject to copyright declarations).

- 🌐 Concert of January 23 2014 recorded at the Théâtre des Champs-Élysées. Orchestre National de France will play the Concerto for cello and orchestra by Antonín Dvorak (Anne Gastinelle, cello) and the Symphony n°1 « Titan » by Gustav Mahler under the direction of Daniele Gatti.

The EBU, UNESCO and URTI propose an event at the Théâtre du Châtelet, in the name of the international WRD Committee and in partnership with Radio France, on Thursday, February 13 for the official evening of World Radio Day 2014 (invitation-only). This evening will be under the honorary Presidency of Mrs Irina Bokova, Director general of UNESCO (to be confirmed), in the presence of the delegates from the international WRD Committee.

- 🌐 06.00 pm, formal cocktail
- 🌐 08.00 pm, opening of the Présences 2014 Festival with four pieces performed by the Orchestre National de France under the direction of Ilan Volkov.
