

HERITAGE AND MEDIA

Preserving the future through our past:
an opportunity for growth and democracy?

JOINT MEETING OF COPEAM COMMISSIONS

Friday 11 May 2018

9.15 – 10.30

Gender Equality Commission

- Training/production workshop for journalists: Media in favour of women entrepreneurs - #Tunisia
- EU projects: AGEMI - Advancing gender equality in media industries
SMED-WiA - Towards a greater gender equality in the South- Mediterranean audiovisual and film sector

Cinema-Festival-Culture Commission

- A première vue: A selection of Mediterranean school films

Training Commission

- COPEAM/EIB transnational newsroom at the world conference on climate change COP23
- MedMedia/COPEAM peer-to-peer workshops – Training strategies and digital transition (2017) and Standards and principles of the public service mission (2018)
- Project FIEST - International training on TV series writing (Erasmus+ Programme/Strategic Partnerships)

10.30 – 11.00 Presentation of the study on the TV series sector – ENSAV Toulouse (within the FIEST project)

11.00 – 11.20 Coffee break

11.20 – 12.30

Audiovisual Heritage Commission

- The importance of the audiovisual archives
- Contest Making a story from archives
- Oran 2021: archive-based coproduction on the Mediterranean Games

TV Magazines and News Exchange Commission

- The ERN-Med: networking the Mediterranean societies through the news exchange
- 2018 ERN-Med Award

Television Commission

- COPEAM-ASBU co-productions: Inter-Rives VI and Inter-Rives VII
- Generation what? project - Arabic version
- Cross-media international project Faces – How I survived being bullied
- New coproduction led by ABU (Asia-Pacific Broadcasting Union): Beautiful Minds

Radio Commission

- The weekly magazines Kantara, Mediterradio and MusicaMed
- The media partnerships: Lectorinfabula, Materadio, Radio City and Melò
- New coproduction on the Mediterranean hip-hop (with Le Mouv'/MFP/COPEAM)

12.30 – 14.00 The floor to the audience/Debate

14.00 – 15.00 Lunch

15.00 – 18.00 Operational meetings (radio, news exchange, gender equality)